Case NO. 17-CV-191-JDP

Request For Counsel

Plaintiff Lewis Byrd is asking the court to request counsel on MR. Byrd's behalf. (1) MR. Byrd is unable to afford counsel, MR. Byrd is an inmate at the Oshkosh Correctional Institution. (2.) This is an officer involved shooting case, and because MR. Byrd is an inmate he may have difficulty finding for himself severely compromising his chances to persuade a jury with his testimony against the testimony of an ex-police officer. (3.) The presence of counsel will make a difference in the outcome, counsel will be able to present evidence and exhibits better, cross examine witnesses, and speak to the jury without them having a possible negative view of MR. Byrd because he is an inmate.
